ESTABLISHED
IN 1883.

THE NEWS-LEADER.

SUBSCRITION
$1.00 A YEAR

NEW SERIES----VOL. XIV. NO. 32 SPRINGFIELD, WASHINGTON COUNTY, KENTUCKY, AUGUST 8, 1907. $1.00 PER YEAR.

DR. W. F. TRUSTY
PRACTICAL
DENTIST
Office over Haydon & Barber

Dental work at reasonable prices.
All work guaranteed.
SPRINGFIELD, KY.

OUR DIRECTORY.

SPRINGFIELD, county seat of Washington County, 52 miles southeast of Lexington, 59 miles from Louisville on Bardstown branch of Louisville and Nashville railroad, in a farming and agricultural district. Two Banks, telegraph and telephone lines, express office, flour mills, lumber yards. Population 1700; population of county 15,000.

Representative in Congress, Hon. Ben Johnson, Bardstown, Ky.

Representative in Kentucky Legislature, Hon. W. D. Claybrooke.

Representative in State Senate, Hon Harry Lancaster, Lebanon, Ky.

County Directoy.

CIRCUIT COURT

Circuit Court begins on the fourth Monday in February, May and October.

I. H. Thurman, Judge
R. L. Durham, Commonwealth Attorney.
Robt. A. Noe, Clerk.
M. G. Leachman, Master Commissioner.

QUARTERLY COURT

Quarterly Court is held on the third Monday in each month.

B. L. Litsey, Judge.

COUNTY COURT.

County Court meets on the fourth Monday in each month.

B. L. Litsey, Judge.
W. F. Booker, County Clerk.
T. S. Mayes, County Attorney.
George Catlett, Jailer.
Sidney Osbourne Sheriff.
Sam Anderson,
Dick Isham, Herbert Eddleman, Ed Masters, } Deputies,
James F. Moore, County Surveyor
T P O'Bryan, Assessor.
W. T. Mitchell, Deputy,
Robert Noe, Treasurer.
J M. Montgomery. Coroner.
J. W. Bush, Supt. of Common Schools, P. O. Springfield.

CITY COURT

James R. Noe, Police Judge.
John Grace, Marshal.
W. F. Grigsby, City Attorney

JUSTICE COURT

Justice Courts are held in January, April, July and October.

Church Directory.

METHODIST CHURCH

Rev. G. W. Lyon, Pastor, Services on the First and Third Sundays in each month at 11 a m and 7:30 p m. Sunday School every Sunday at 10 a.m, Prayer meeting every Wednesday night.

CATHOLIC CHURCH

Rev. P F Hennessay, Pastor. Services every Sunday at 8 and 10 o'clock a.m. Services at St. Rose same hours

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH,

Rev. R. E. C. Lawson, Pastor, Preaching every Sunday at 11 a.m., and at 7 p.m, Sunday school every Sunday at 10 a.m. Prayer meetin very Thursday evening at 7 o'clock

BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. Wm. Harrison Williams, Pastor Preaching every Sunday at 11 a.m and 7:45 p.m. Sunday School every Sunday at 9:30 a.m. Prayer meeting every Tuesday evening at 7:45 o'clock

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Rev. W. F. Rogers, Pastor. Services first and fourth Sunday. Sunday at 9:30 a.m.

Fraternal Orders

MASONIC LODGE—Springfield lodge No. 50 meets first and third Monday of each month.

Washington R A Chapter, No, 57 meets every second Tuesday,

Springfield Council No. 52 meets on very fourth Monday,

KNIGHTS of THE MACABEES—Meet [illegible] Tuesday in each mo

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, general debility, sour risings, and catarrh of the stomach are all due to indigestion. Kodol relieves indigestion. This new discovery represents the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach, combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. Kodol for dyspepsia does not only relieve indigestion and dyspepsia, but this famous remedy helps all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.

Mr. S. S. Ball, of Ravenswood, W. Va., says:—"I was troubled with sour stomach for twenty years. Kodol cured me and we are now using it in milk for baby."

FOR BACKACHE—WEAK KIDNEYS
TRY
DeWITT'S KIDNEY and BLADDER PILLS—Sure and Safe
Prepared by E. C. DeWITT & CO., Chicago

old by Red Cross Drug Stroe

A ROUND OF TALK.

Midsummer Joys.

Come, let us fly together
Across the sunny fields,
Whistle this delightful weather
Such perfect pleasures yields;
We'll linger longer, Lucy,
Upon the sunny slope.
And there we'll carve the juicy
And joyous cantaloupe.

Come let us to the valley,
Where fields are growing green,
There for a while to dalley,
Besides the brooklet's sheen;
For pleasure much is brewing,
Where trails the fruitful vine,
And there'll be something doing,
In the watermelon line.

Come, Lucy let us wander
Where fair the orchard grows.
See! it is gleaming yonder,
As fragrant as a rose.
The very heights of pleasure
On such a day we'll reach,
And pluck that royal treasure—
The ripe and radiant peach.

Come let us to a beanery,
Where lies the luscious corn.
That precious bit of greenery—
Best since the world was born!
Yes, whilst delight thus lingers
We'll sit with hearts a-throb,
And hold it in our fingers
And gnaw it off the cob!

—By William Lenard Clanahan

TYPHOID—There is the usual epedemic of typhoid fever throughout the county this year and a great many sad deaths have resulted. Of all diseases known, typhoid is to be the most dreaded. It attacks the young and robust and the strongest constitutions yield before its ravages. Strange to say medical science appears to have made but little progress in the treatment or prevention of this dreadful diseaseand it breaks out in any and all places. Although physicians and scientists have theories as to the origin and spread of the typhoid germ no effective method has yet been discovered by which these deadly germs can be wholly exterminated. Cleanliness is something that should always be observed by the modern dweller in the county as well as the town and while typhoid fever may and sometimes does break out in the families of homes which are kept clean, cleanliness is the best safe guard. We suggested in this column some time ago the advantages to a town like Springfield of a Civic League whose business it is to urge on the citizens of the town the necessity of using every sanitary precaution and to beautify as well as to keep clean their premises as well as the streets and sidewalks. Such organizations are doing good work in some of our neighboring towns and the ladies are receiving the moral support as well as financial aid of the best citizens.

* * *

OUR FAIR—Forty five years ago the first county fair was held at Springfield and since then it has become an annual fixed event of large importance. The Washington county fair has always been classed as one of the best in the state. Its exhibition of live stock from those early days to the present time has always been of the highest order. In years gone by the people made more of a social feature of these fairs than is done of late years. Then each farmer's wife would vie with the other in her hospitality. Great baskets of good things to eat were brought to the fair and no stranger was allowed to go hungry or to buy his dinner. Of late years owing to the scarscity of domestic help and other circumstances the custom of "spreading dinner" at the fair has not been practiced so much but the fair is still a favorite place for social intercourse. The Springfield fair this year which begins August 28th and continues four days promises to be fully up to the high standard. The catalogues which were printed by the News-Leader is a 48 page book and contains a premium list which has been revised and improved. Some good premiums are offered as as an inducement to owners of good horses and we understand that the indications are that there will be a number of good stables on hand to take part in the competition. For the first time in a number of years no intoxicating liquor will be sold on the grounds and gambling will be strictly prohibited.

The Limit of Life.

The most eminent medical scientists are unanimous in the conclusion that the generally accepted limitation of human life is many years below the attainment possible with the advanced knowledge of which the race is now possessed. The critical period, that determines its duration, seems to be between 50 and 60; the proper care of the body during this decade cannot be too strongly urged; carelessness then being fatal to longevity. Nature's best helper after 50 is Electric Bitters, the scientific tonic medicine that revitalizes every organ of the body. Guaranteed by Haydon & Robertson Druggists. 50c.

Campbellsville Sued.

The expected thing has happened at last. This week Mr. M. L. Heizer brought a suit against the town on account of the sanitary condition of the section in which he resides. He claims that it is impossible for him to sleep at night on account of foul ordors from hog pens, stagnant pools, etc. We have warned the council time and again about these very things but no attention has been paid to our appeals for a cleaner town, and now we think Mr. Heizer is entitled to a judgment. We can also take any member of the council to sections of the town where weeds have reached the height of over six feet on one o our principal streets. It is a shame and a disgrace to civilization. Taylor County Enquirer.

$100 Reward

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure id all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietor have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O.

Sold by druggists 75c.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Billy The Kid.

"Billy The Kid," a notorious colored man, got in bad again Saturday. He used abusive language to Mrs. W. N. Brinton at the hotel and a warrant was sworn out for his arrest. Chief of Police Brown went to serve the warrant on him and he resisted arrest when the officer struck at him with his billy which the negro grabbed and was about to strike Mr. Brown when the officer opened fire on him with his revolver. He shot twice, one ball striking the vicious man in the hip and the other in the hand, when he yielded to arrest and was placed in jail. He was tried before Judge Thomas Tuesday and judgment was reserved pending an investigation of his mental condition. In the meantime he is in jail under the treatment of a physician.—Falcon.

THE TEXAS WONDER

Cures all Kidney, Bladder and Rheumatic troubles, sold by all druggists, or two months, treatment by mail for $1, Dr. E. W. Hall. 2926 Olive street St Louis. Send for Kentucky testimonials.—

Kills Bear With Penknife.

Jay Bunch, of this city, had an experience last week that bids fair to rival Roosevelt's coyote yarn. Bunch is a filer at Larfin Bros. loging camp on the Wishkah, and one day last week with a friend and several dogs started out to find a bee tree.

They had not gone far when the dogs started up a bear. Bruin took refuge in the top of a tree, but was finally dislodged, and one of the dogs managed to get a good hold on the animal's ear and hung there. Bunch had no other weapon than a jackknife, but he got it into working order and commenced the hand to hand battle. He struck the bear about forty times, severing his juglar vein, and Bruin weak from loss of blood, gave up the fight. The bear's hide literaly punctured with holes around the throat. The animal weighed about 300 pounds.—Aberdeen, Wash., Correspondence of Seattle Times.

Endorsed By The County:

"The most popular remedy in Otsego county, and the best friend of my family," writes Wm. M. Dietz. editor and publisher of the Otsego Journal, Gilbertsville, N. Y., "is Dr. King's New Discovery. It has proved to be infallible cure for coughs and colds, making short work of the worst of them. We always keep a bottle in the house. I believe it to be the most valuable prescription known for Lung and Throat diseases." Guaranteed to never disappoint the taker by Haydon & Robertson's Drug Store. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

Fox Hunters Meet.

Announcement was made yesterday of the appointment of a committee to select the place for holding the annual meet and field trials of the National Fox Hunters' Association. The following committee was selected by the Hon. Nat W. Halstead, of Bardstown, President of the association, who was in Louisville for a short time yesterday: Woods Walker, of Paint Lick; R J Frick, of Louisville; C J. Meredtih, of Bowling Green; Col Jack Chinn, of Harrodsburg; W. A Wade, of Huber's Station; Samuel Woolridge, of Versailes, and Joseph Deatherage, of Richmond. The last meet of the association was held at Bardstown, which is again an applicant for the honor of entertaining the fox hunters. Among the other applicants are Bowling Green, Richmond, Hustonville and Russellville. After waiting a reasonable time for applicants from other cities desiring to hold the meet, the committee will meet and decide the matter. There is some feeling in the association that this years' meet should be held out of Kentucky, but the general sentiment is said to favor the State, as has been the case for several years.—Herald.

If yo can't eat three good square meals without indigestion your stomach needs strengthening with Mi-o-na. Fifty cents a box if it helps you, nothing if it fails. Sold by the Red Cross Drug Store.

JEFF DAVIS

Once Attended School at St. Rose College This Place.

A special from Lexington says: "John William Townsend, the young historian of this city, who recently published a life of Richard Hickman Menefee, has been engaged by Prof. Walter L. Fleming, of the University of Louisiana, to write for his new biography of Jefferson Davis. President of the Southern Confederacy, now in course of preparation, a narrative of Mr. Davis' Kentucky career.

It is well known that President Davis was born in Kentucky, but few people know that his life was so intimately connected with his native State. Mr. Townsend's narrative will tell of his school days at Old Transylvania University in this city.

In order to obtain all the information possible on the subject. Mr. Townsend will carefully examine the files of old papers here at Louisville and at Springfield, Washington county, searching for data. He is now busy examining the files of old Kentucky papers now in the Lexington public library, and has come across some valuable data concerning the life of President Davis while in Kentucky. Besides the record of his school days at Old Transylvania, Mr. Townsend has discovered that President Davis was in Lexington in 1833, during the fatal cholera epidemic of that year on a recruiting expedition. The cholera broke out while he was here and no one administered to the sick with greater fidelity than he; he was then a young soldier. President Davis was also in Lexing in 1852, and in 1886, just three years before his death, paid his last visit to Kentucky.

After completing the examination of records here, Mr. Townsend will go next week to Louisville to make further historical investigations of President Davis' Kentucky career, going over the files of the Courier-Journal and other records for facts in the Confederate Chieftian's life. From Louisville he will visit Springfield, in Washington county, where President Davis attended St. Thomas College, a Catholic institution, at which he is said to have been prepared for Transylvania University."

The article in referring to St. Thomas College is in error as it should be St Rose. Jeff Davis was a student at St Rose for a very short time when quite a young man. This fact is known to Col. John I. McElroy who together with his brother Hugh McElroy and some other Springfield people, was in Montreal shortly after the release of Mr. Davis from prison and called on the famous president of the confederacy, who spoke of having been a student at St. Rose for a short time. An examination of the records at that place made by Father Volz at the suggestion of Mr. McElroy revealed the fact of Mr. Davis' entry into the school, but gave no further rocord of his life there.

I Will Sell You
Breeching
and Check Lines

Cheaper than you can buy elsewhere. Quality guaranteed as well as to the price.

CALL AND GET PRICES

John Lily Barber,
Sucessor to Haydon & Barber.

Duel With Moonshiner.

It was only after a two day's hunt and many fast rides over the hills of LaRue county that Deputy United States Marshall Jeff Cundiff took prisoner Jesse Skaggs, noted as an alleged moonshiner in Larue county. Skaggs opened fire on on Cundiff several times. He was taken to Lebanon, where he was unable to produce $500 for bail. Deputy Cundiff took him to Louisville vesterday, where he was lodged in jail to await the sitting of the Federal grand jury.

A warrant for Skaggs' arrest on the charge of retailing liquor without license was placed in the hands of the United States Marshal severaldays ago, and it was with much difficulty that he was located. The first chase took place on the border of the county where Skaggs' friend, who is not known, turned on Cundiff while galloping his horse over the hills, and grazed his coat with bullets from his revolver.

Tuesday evening Cundiff discovered the moonshiner alone, making preparations for a supper. He refused to throw up his hands, and a duel followed, the woods ringing with stray bullets. Within a few seconds Cundriff drew close in on his man, and seizing Skaggs' arm, placed his revolver to his head. Skaggs surrendered and was taken to Lebanon at the point of Cundif's revolver.—E'town News.

Men Past Sixty in Denger.

More than half of mankind over sixty years of age suffer from kidney and bladder disorders, usually enlargement of the of prostrate glands. This is both painful and dangerous; and Foley's Kidney Cure should be taken at the first sign of dangers as it corrects irregularities and has cured many old men of this disease. Mr. Rodney Burnett. Rockport, Mo., writes: "I suffered with enlarged prostate gland and kidney trouble for years and after taking two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure I feel petter than I haue for twenty years. although I am now 91 years old." Sold by the Red Cross Drug Store,

Death By Accident.

Augustine McClaskey, a very worthy colored boy of Bloomfield, died last Friday night from injuries received in a runaway accident. He was driving a drummer from Bloomfield to Bardstown Friday morning when the horse took fright at an automobile near the watering trough in the edge of town. He was either thrown from the buggy or leaped out, suffering internal injuries from which he died. He was the son of Robert and Molly McClaskey, two well known and highly respected colored people who have a great many friends, among the white as well as the colored people, who sympathize with them in their trouble.—Standard and lose all interest when help is in reach. Herbine will make that liver perform its duties properly. J. B. Vaughn, Elba, Ala., writes. "Being a constant sufferer from constipation and a disordered liver, I have found Herbine to be the best medicine, for these troubles, on the market. I have used it constantly. I believe it to be the best medicine of its kind, and I wish all sufferers from these troubles to know the good Herbine has done me. Sold by the Red Cross Drug Store.

Dont Be Blue

Watterson To Speak

The Honorable Henry Watterson, of Louisville, editor of the Courier-Journal and one of the foremost statesmen of America, will deliver the opening address at the big Blue Grass Fair at Lexington on Monday, August 12th. Last year, when Lexington lost the Kentucky State Fair, after making a notable success where both Louisville and Owensboro had failed, quite a good deal of feeling on the part of the citizens and business men of the Blue Grass was aroused towards Louisville. The people of Lexington now realize that the fight for the State Fair is over; that Louisville has the location permanently and the spirit of generosity they have displayed in inviting Mr. Watterson to deliver the opening address for the Blue Grass Fair is especially notable. It is also probable that Governor John A. Johnson, of Minnesota, who has attained wide publicity recently as Mr. Watterson's "dark horse" candidate for the Presidential nomination of the Democratic party, will be a visitor at the Blue Grass Fair on the opening day. The management has extended him a most cordial invitation—an invitation in which Mr. Watterson thoroughly concurs, and the distinguished editor is bringing to bear all his influence upon Governor Johnson to induce him to visit Lexington.

"Everybody Should Know"

says C. G. Hays, a prominent business man, of Bluff, Mo., that Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the quickest and surest healing salve ever applied to a sore, burn or wound, or to a case of piles. I've used it and know what I am talking about." Guaranteed by Haydon & Robertson Druggists 25c.

Seeks Damages.

John Brown during the past week instituted in the Marion Circuit Court a suit against the Louisville & Nashville Railroad for $5,000 damages alleged to have been sustained in an accident which occurred at a road crossing about two and a half miles east of Lebanon on July 8. At the time Mr. Brown was on his way to this city from his home, and while crossing the railroad track on the Danville pike near Veatch's blacksmith shop was struck by the afternoon passenger train. The horse he was driving was killed and the vehicle demolished. As quickly as Mr. Brown saw that the crash was inevitable he jumped and saved himself from instant death, but he received, so it is stated in the petition, a great mental and nervous shock and was otherwise painfully, physically and permanently injured and damaged in the sum of $5,000. The plaintiff states that the accident was the result of carelessness of the crew in charge of the train in approaching a dangerous crossing at a high rate of speed without ringing a bell or sounding a whistle. The suit will be called for trial at the September term of court. —Lebanon Enterprise.

"We never repent of eating too little" Was one of the ten rules of Thomas Jefferson, president of the United States, and the rule applies to every one without exception during this hot weather, because it is hard for food, even in small quantities, to be digested when the blood is at a high temperature. At this season we should eat sparingly and properly. We should also help the stomach as much as possible by the use of a little Kodol for Indigestion and Dyspepsia, which will rest the stomach by digesting the food itself. Sold by the Red Cross Drug Store.

Commissioner's Sale

S. E. Yocum, Admr. etc. Plffs.
vs. In Equity
S. B. Yocum, Guar. etc. Defts.

By virtue of a Judgment and order of sale of the Washington Circuit Court rendered at the May term, thereof, 1907, in the above style cause I shall proceed to offer for sale on the premisis, near Willisburg, Washington county Kentucky on THURSDAY, AUGUST, 15, 1907.

At 2 o'clock P. M. or there about to the highest bidder at public auction, upon a credit of six, twelve or eighteen months the following described property to wit: A certain tract or parcel of land lying and being in the county of Washington, State of Kentucky and bounced as follows; on the West by the lands of Philip Burkhead; on the South by Lick creek, on the East by the old Frankfort road, Will Scott and John Gorden, on the North by the old Duncan farm, containing 150 acres and 28 poles, being the same land owned by the late George H. Yocum and Martha Yocum his wife at toe time of their death. Said land will be offered in seperate parcels and then as a whole and will be sold in the manner in which it brings the most money.

For the purchase price the purchaser or purchasers with approved security or sureties must execute bonds bearing legal interest from date of sale until paid and having the force and effect of a Judgment. Bidders will be required to comply promptly with these term.

M. G. LEACHMAN,
M. C. W. C. C.

John Riah, a prominent dealer of Vining, Ia., says: "I have been selling DeWitt's Kidney and bladder pills for about a year and they give better satisfaction than any pill I ever sold. There are a dozen people here who have used them and they give peafect satisfaction in every case. I have used them myself with fine results." Sold by the Red Cross Drug Store.

It's Different.

"A lawyer charges a man $10 for ten minutes conversation," says an exchange, "and the man insists on paying it. A doctor charges $1 for a prescription and the patient says "Oh, pshaw, is that enough?" An undertaker conducts a funeral and charges $100. and he is just perfectly lovely with every one inside and outside the family; a man buys a gold brick and apoligizes for not having bitten before. An editor walks a mile in the hot sun to get facts of a death, wedding or social function, spends three hours in writing it and tells lies and praises people up till he hates himself. Then if he makes an insignificant error, charges five cent straight for three extra papers, he is a stingy, good-for-nothing cuss who never gets anything right; he is most any old thing, and out to be run out of town. Talk about the ice man; how would you like to run a newspaper?"

"Regular as the Sun"

is an expression as old as the race. No doubt the rising and setting of the sun is the most regular performance in the universe, unless it is the action of the liver and bowels when regulated with Dr. King's New Life Pills. Guaranteed by Haydon & Robertson druggist. 25c.

A Bad Habit.

There are men who go armed always; there are others who occasionly go armed because of a threatened or expected difficulty; there are other men who obey both the spirit and the letter of the law, and never under a circumstances carry weapon. Does the State protect these latter? Is it, or is not, true that in this community each man must be his own and only protector from personal attack and violence—that this fact is recognized and acted upon with the result that in every crowd of half a dozen there is one or more who is armed? We submit these questions to this community for its consideration this morning.—Kentucky Gazette.

Those who have stomach trouble, no matter how slight, should give every possible help to the digestive organs, so that the food may be digested with the least effort. This may be done by taking something that contains natural digestive properties—something like Kodol for Indigestion and Dyspepsia. Kodol is a preparation of vegetable acids and contains the very same juices found in a healthy stomach. It digests what you eat. Sold by the Red Cross Drug Store.

Notice.

I have sold my dwelling property and have rented the store room now occupied by Reidel's saloon and will open at that place on August 15th with a different line of business. I therefore desire to sell my grocery business. We are doing from $9,000 to $12,000 worth of business a year and our trade is practically all cash. It is a good opportunity for some one to engage in a profitable business and we will sell at a bargain. For further particulars call at Campbell's grocery.

MRS. LIZZIE CAMPBELL.

Notice.

Taxes for the year 1907 for the Springfield Graded School district are now due. On and after August 15th a penalty will be added on all unpaid taxes, so taxpayers can save money by paying now.

G. C. WHARTON,
4t Treasurer.

Don't accept a cough cure that you may be told is just as good as Kennedy's Laxative cough Syrup, because it it isn't just as good—there is quite a difference. Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup acts gently upon the bowels and clears the whole system of coughs and colds. It clears the whole system of coughs and colds. It promptly relieves inflammation of the throat and allays inflamation of the throat and allays irritation. Sold by the Red Cross Drug Store.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR
for children; safe, sure. No opiates

THE NEWS-LEADER

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY.

$1 A YEAR IN ADVANCE.

SPRINGFIELD, KY.

E. L. DAVISON, Jr.,

Local or business notices, 10 cents per ch subsequent insertion.

Calls on candidates and political matte

Job work is done at low rates, but cash [illegible]

Advertising contracts made on liberal erms.

Obituaries and resolutions of respect ents per line.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

County Magistrates	$2.50
District Offices	10.00

THURSDAY, AUG. 1, 1907

ANNOUNCEMENT

We are authorized to announce J. Rogers Gore, of Springfield, a candidate for State Senator from the Fifteenth Senatorial District, composed of Marion, Washington and Taylor counties, subject to the action of the Democratic party

Gov. Beckham's new Louisville appointees are nothing if not spectacular. Mayor Bingham started in by doing a few spectacular stunts some, of which looked very much like a play to the galleries. The latest play was made by Mr. Scott Bullitt the newly appointed Sheriff who made a raid on the pool rooms the other day. The raid was alright and its results good, but the manner in which Mr. Sheriff Bullitt operates smells of the melodrama. He quietly notifies a few newspaper reporters and a photographer and with two automobiles loaded with deputies makes a sudden swoop on the operators and captures them red handed. The ambitious young sheriff then poses before the camera in a dozen different attitudes showing the various stages of his "raid" which pictures very promptly appeared in the papers together with an interview with the sheriff telling about how it was all done. The public would applaud the act for its good results just as heartily without so much stage scenery thrown in.

W. J. Semonin, County Clerk at Louisville, who was ousted from office by the recent decision of the Court of Appeals, and who was reported as short in his settlement with the State, has settled by paying $45,465.85. Criminal prosecution against him has been stopped.

A large crowd of Georgia Prohibitionists Tuesday watched Gov. Hoke Smith attach his official signature to the Prohibition Bill and the act has become a law, effective January 1, 1908.

Children in Pain

never cry as do children who are suffering from hudger. Such is the cause of all baby's who cry and are treated for sickness, when they really are suffering from hunger. This is caused from their food not being assimilated but devoured by worms. A few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge will cause them to cease crying and begin to thrive at once. Give it a trial. Sold by the Red Cross Drug Store.

MOORESVILLE

News is scarce in this vicinity. Occasionally you hear a man arguing about what is in the bible and how he is going to vote this fall which makes a man think that he does not believe a word he says.

For the first time in the history of Mooresville we had a Sheriff's sale. The plaintiff being Wm. Cheatham the defendant John Barnett. A horse 17 years old sold to Murray Shields for $50, and a sow and four shoats for $26.15, the shoats weighed about pounds. A large crowd was present. John Barnett was arrested by H. R Eddieman deputy sheriff and lodged in jail at Springfield on a charge of abusing a woman, Mrs. Annie Chesser. The trial was held last Monday.

Miss Vernie Wells and brother Sam, and cousin, Miss Essie Ryan, visited their uncle, Mr. Ed Yocum of this place last Sunday.

The Sheriff's race two years hence seems to be talked of quite frequently here of late.

There are about 40 or 50 Democrats in this precinct who say they will not vote this fall and if they do they say they will vote the Republican ticket.

Mr. John A Boblett went to Louisville last Sunday to see his daughter, Josie, who is there under treatment for her eyes.

There was not any preaching at New Hope church last Sunday on account of the illness of the wife of the pastor.

Mr. Carl Yancy has returned from Illinois.

The Misses Askin have returned to their home at Louisville. They were given several receptions while in our vicinity.

Miss Sallie Hendren visited Mrs. Yocum last Sunday.

We are in the midst of a severe drouth and unless a rain comes this week corn and tobacco will be a short crop in this section.

The protracted meeting conducted at Maud by Rev W. J, Cocke has closed with eight additions by baptism and one by letter.

What a New Jersey Editor Says

M. T. Lynch, Editor of the Phillipsburg, N. J., Daily Post, writes: "I have used many kinds of medicines for coughs and colds in my family but never anything so good as Foley's Honey and Tar. I cannot say too much in praise of it." Sold by the Red Cross Drug Store.

Thorn Hill

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Sweeny spent Thursday with Mrs. Nellie Logsdon.

The people are through threshing wheat in this community and the crops are as good as usual.

Misses Annie Hardin and Maggie Hiatt spent Monday and Tuesday with Mrs. Will Jeffries

Miss Lillie Sweeney spent Friday with Miss Hattie Logsdon.

Miss Annie Hardin spent Thursday with Miss Mollie Taylor.

Miss Sadie Fenwick was the guest of Miss Adray Canary Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs Brack Yaste spent Sunday with her son, Elvin Yaste.

Mr. Benoney Hardin and Walter Logsdon spent Sunday at Mr. Shelt Jeffries.

Mr. Sam Montgomery, of Oklahoma is the guest of his sister, Mrs. H. S. Litsey this week.

Mrs. Dick Lanham spent several days last week with Mr. S. G. Logsdon and family.

Mr. Stanley Fenwick is very low with typhoid fever.

Grino Laxative Fruit Syrup is sold under a posative gurantee to cure constipation, sick hedache, stomach trouble, or any form of indigestion. If it fails the manufacturers refund your money. What more can any one do. Sold by the Red Cross Drug Store.

Valley Hill.

News is exceedingly scarce this week and it is impossible to to locate enough items to consume noticable space.

J, S. Yankey, of Pleasant Grove was in our midst Thursday in interest of his business firm.

Messrs. Wharton & Tapp, of Springfield, harvested a very fine crop of hay in this section last week. They certainly have the best crop ever grown in this section.

Miss Giadys Wrlker, of Walker Heights, is spending the month as a guest of friends and relatives in Louisville.

King Comstock, who has been bordering on a spell of typhoid fever for several days is convalescent at this writing.

Mrs. Emmet Fields, of Crescent Hill, has returned to her home after a pleasant visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs, Palmer Grundy, of this place

W. R. Janes recently purchased a work horse of J. L. Moran at $150.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick McDowell and daughter, of Danville, were guests of Mrs. Palmer Grundy at this place last week.

Of the crowd of young people, who were to have spent Sunday at Tatham Springs only two succeeded in making the trip, your correspondent being one of the "lucky two."

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Allen, of Bloomfield, visited relatives here Sunday.

Miss Pearl Goatley will entertain her Sunday school class this (Thursday) afternoon and evening from 4 to 7. A grand time is expected by one and all.

We notice that Frizzle Head has put in her appearance again which we heartily welcome.

T. C. Tatum recently purchased a sow and five pigs of Ambros Nance at $30.

C. L. Grundy sold a fine O. I. C. gilt to L. C. Loy, of Lebanon, at $10.

L. M, Gregory recently purchased two fine South Down bucks, of Chas. Grundy at $24 for the pair.

A much needed rain fell here monday much to the delight of everyone.

Mr. J. H. Gray received a fine organ at this station this week, Guess they expect to have music in their hearts to day.

Earle Whitman, of this place, visited friends and relatives in Louisville Saturday and Sunday.

Misses. Margaret and Elsie Askins, have returned to their home in Louisville after a brief visit to relatives in this and adjoining vicinities.

Miss Nellie Foster spent last week with her, uncle Mr. Thos. Reed, of near Booker.

'7 to 11' that looks good to me when in our favor, and that is the way it stands after the ball game Saturday, when the "Invincibles," of this place, played the "Poortown" nine, at Colvin park at that village, and those present had the pleasure of witnessing an interesting game, however it was a bit too one sided, yet it was interesting to see some one else reap the profits of another toil, as did our nine on this occasion, yet we must not overlook the fact that all of our men were out of practice, one handicap easily overcome however. Poortown deserves credit for 'dying game' as they surely fought unsuccessfully throughout the entire game. The score being seven to eleven in favor of the "Invincibles."

Rev. R. E. C. Lawson, of Springfield, delivered a deep theological sermon to a large and appreciative audience, at the schoolhouse here on Sunday afternoon the 4th inst. Rev. Lawson is an able man, a deep thinker and a pulpit orator worthy of the praise given him by all who had the pleasure of hearing him on this occasion. I am informed that he will preach here again on the afternoon of the first Sunday in September, however this is not definite and further notice will be given.

SOCIAL

Your correspondent had the honor and pleasure of being present at the social given by Mr. and Mrs. W H. Yancey of Midway on last Wednesday night Others present were Misses Alma Orkies, Ardia Wall, Marguerite Lydanne, Lora and Cassie Yancey and Margie and Elsie Askins in whose honor the social was given. Also Messrs. Earl and Arthur Whiteman, Earl Arnold. Jas, Taylor, Will Van Dpke. Hark Shehan, Earnest and Clyde Goatley and Uno of course. All enjoyed their visit very much and appreciate every kindness shown us by the host and hostess.

UNO.

Ten Years in Bed.

"For ten years I was confined to my bed with disaase of my kidneys," writes R. A. Gray, J. P. of Oakville, Ind, "It was so severe that I could not move part of the time. I consulted the very best medical skill available, but could get no relief until until Foley's Kidney Cure was recommendsd to me. It has been a Godsend to me, Sold by the Red Cross Drug Store.

Commissioner's Sale

Lenora Carrico, et al — Plff vs — Equity
Emma M. Burks, &c., — Dfts

By virtue of a Judgment and order of sale of the Washington Circuit Court rendered at the May term, thereof, 1907, in the above style cause I shall proceed to offer for sale at the Court House door in Springfield, Ky.,

ON MONDAY, AUGUST 26, 1907,

at 2 o'clock p.m., or thereabout being county court day, to the highest bidder at public auction upon a credit of one and two years the following described property to-wit,

Two tracts of land which lie together and form one body and situated in Washington county, Ky., and bounded as follows:

Tract No. 1. Beginning at a stone corner to Cambron's land on North side of Springfield and Hardin's creek road, thence with same as it meanders N 50 E 30 poles, thence S 65½ E 40 poles, thence S 76¼ E 24 poles, thence S 73½ E 13 poles, thence S 80 E 60 poles, thence N 88¼ E 25 poles poles, thence N 73 E 18 poles, thence S 82¼ E 43 poles to a stone and white oak corner to Bowles and Burk's land on the north side of said road, thence with Burk's line S 45 W 101 poles to a stone corner to same, thence S 93 E 77½ poles to a gum and sugar tree, teence S 36¼ W 17 poles to a stone in Blincoe's line, thence N 40 W 98 poles to a stone on a branch below the mouth of a drain, thence N 29¼ W 40 1-2 poles to a stone in said branch, thence N 89 1-2 W 70 poles to a stone corner to Jack Cambron's land, thence with his line N 48 W 31 poles to a stone about 1-2 pole south of a buckeye corner to same and Cambron's land, thence with their line N 34 1-2 W 44 poles to the beginning containing 86 acres and 2 roods.

Tract No. 2. Beginning at a walnut tree on a branch thence N 30 E 105 poles to a white oak tree on the big road leading from the mouth of Hardins Creek to Springfield, thence S 45 w 102 poles to a stone corner to Martha Cambron's track, thence with her line S 40 E 53 poles to said Cambron's line, thence up the branch N 50 E 33 poles to the beginning corner containing 28¼ acres, making one connected body of land containing 114 3-4 acres.

For the purchase price the purchaser or purchasers with approved security or sureties must execute bonds bearing legal interest from date of sale until paid and having the force and effect of a Judgment. Bidders will be required to comply promptly with these term.

M. G. LEACHMAN,
M. C. W. C. C.

Hay Fever and Summer Colds.

Victims of hay fever will experience great benefit by taking Foley's Honey and Tar, as it stops difficult breathing immediately and heals the inflamed air passages, and even if it should fail to cure you it will give instant relief. The genuine is in a yellow package. Sold by the Red Cross Drug Store.

The Washington County Fair

August 28--4 Days,

Bids fair to be one of the best of its 45 years of existence.

The First Day is

Ladies Day

and a liberal sum has been set aside as premiums for their handy work.

School Children

The Second Day is School Children's Day when all the children will be admitted free. On the Second Day a fine Gocart will be presented to the handsomest Girl Baby under one year old, and in the evening the Best Turnout for single horses and Pony Turnout.

THIRD DAY

The Handsomest Boy Baby under one year old will be presented a fine Gocart.

COAL FAMINE

Headed This Way. They Say it is Coming

Have you heard that now is the time to buy your COAL. That you can't afford to wait this time sure. Get in line. Keep step with the crowd by placing your order with us. We handle nothing but the best, Prices always right, and satisfaction guaranteed. You get clean coal, and a square deal everytime.

M. H. JONES & CO.,

FOR THE CHILDREN

Witch In the Jar.

One of the boys and girls acts as witch or wizard. Each of the other players chooses a tree or anything else for a "home."

The witch then traces out on the ground with a stick as many circles as there are players and calls these circles "jars"

The players all run out from their "homes," and the witch runs after them. Every one that she catches she puts in one of her jars. The captives must remain in their jars unless they are released by a touch from some uncaptured player. If released he cannot be recaptured until after he has reached his "home" and started out from it once again.

But his rescuer runs great risk of being captured, as the witch naturally keeps close guard over the prisoners and stands ready to pounce down upon any would be rescuer.

When every player has been caught a new witch or wizard is chosen and the game goes merrily on again.

My Master Sends Me to You.

Sitting in order round the room, the first player begins by saying to his neighbor, "My master sends me to you," at the same time working away with the right hand as if hammering on his knee. The one to whom this remark is made answers, "What to do?" In reply to which the first player says. "To work with one as I do." The second player, then working in the same way, must turn to his neighbor on the left and carry on the same conversation with him, and so on until every one in the room is working with one hand. The next time of going round the order is given to work with two hands, after that with one foot also, then with two feet, and last of all with the head. Should any one be discovered not to be keeping both feet, hands and head in constant motion while the game is going on a forfeit may be demanded.

Breathing Fire.

Did you ever see a juggler blow a stream of sparks from his mouth? Of course you wondered how he could possibly keep fire in his mouth without getting burned, for he must have fire there in order to blow out the sparks.

It is a neat trick. He rolls some flax or hemp into a ball about the size of a walnut and then sets fire to it and lets it burn until it is nearly consumed. Then, while it is still burning, he rolls more flax or hemp around it and thus confines the fire, in which condition it will live for a long time. When he is ready to perform the trick he slips the ball into his mouth and by breathing through it makes sparks fly out, with an effect that is quite startling to those who do not know how it is done. Of course while he is performing the trick he has to breathe in air through his nostrils only.

A Rabbit's Foot.

Did you ever hear of the custom among the colored people of the south of carrying a rabbit's foot in the pocket for good luck? That little animal is regarded by them with superstitious admiration, and they tell many stories of its cleverness in outwitting its natural enemies, the dog, the fox and the wolf, and in circumventing every scheme intended for its punishment. This belief in the sagacity of the living rabbit gave rise to a belief that a dead rabbit has certain magic powers, and one of the evidences of the superstition is the custom of carrying the foot, not only for good luck, but as a charm against disease. It is the left hind foot that is preferred, and if it be taken from a rabbit that was in the habit of running through a graveyard its efficacy is largely increased.

Strength of Plants.

Strength is not a thing usually connected with maidenhair fern, yet if its roots have not sufficient room they will break the pot in which the plant grows Blades of grass will force the curb stones between which they may spring up out of their place, and in a single night a crop of small mushrooms have lifted a large stone. Indeed, plants have been known to break the hardest rocks. The island of Aldabra, to the northwest of Madagascar, is becoming smaller and smaller through the action of the mangroves that grow along the foot of the cliffs. They eat their way into the rock in all directions, and into the gaps thus formed the waves force their way. In time they will probably reduce the island to pieces.

Hidden Names.

In each of the following sentences a girl's name is concealed:

1. She gave an impatient jerk at her inelegant old bonnet.
2. In France sewing is regarded as a fine art.
3. On Christmas eve Lynmouth was reached.
4. I went to my berth at 10 o'clock and was soon asleep.
5. The doctor gave me powders, also phials of I know not what.
6. I dare not go alone.

Answers: 1. Katherine; 2. Frances; 3. Evelyn; 4, Bertha; 5, Sophia; 6. Ida.

The Relief of It.

"Well, I finally summed up the courage to speak to her father last night I tell you, it was a great relief."

"Gee! What did he say?"

"Oh, you misunderstand me. He wasn't in."—Philadelphia Press.

Mice That Were Tipplers.

A correspondent writes: In Quetta some years ago I had occasion to go early one morning into a miscellaneous store kept by a Parsee, who also kept a liquor bar. As I entered the shop I noticed a mouse reeling across the floor, and I remarked to the shopkeeper that the mouse seemed to be hurt, but his reply astonished me. He said that that mouse and several others that infested his shop were confirmed drunkards. During the night they regularly drank all the liquor which remained in the glasses which the soldiers had used in the evening for their drinks.—Exchange.

Crushed.

"Halloa, Badger," said Thorpe, "met a friend of yours the other day. He's been talking about you, and I feel it my duty to tell you what he said."

"Ah, well, I don't care to hear what he said. I know it was something disagreeable," replied Badger.

"How do you know that?"

"Because you are so anxious to tell it. Good morning."

Cement Paint.

It has long been noticed that iron which has been imbedded in concrete for many years has shown a wonderful state of preservation when taken out. Experiments have since been made with portland cement, with the result that it is made plain that a thin coating of portland cement properly applied to iron and steel will arrest oxidation, says Farm, Field and Fireside. The cement must be finely divided, free from iron salts and diluted with pure water. Then, if it is free from iron, calcium phosphate and sulphurites and is of low specific gravity, it will set quickly and become practically a part of the metal. It will set within the iron and will not wash off with rain, and no moisture, carbon dioxide or factory fumes will affect the metal.

Cowpeas For Fall Crop.

Cowpeas may be sowed after wheat, oats or rye, at least from the latitude of Washington southward, and may be harvested for hay in time for another fall crop to be sowed. Professor H. J. Waters of Missouri has grown cowpeas between wheat crops for several years past and increased the yield of wheat in a marked degree.

Nuckols' Harness "String."

Vance Nuckols now has fourteen head at the Glenville track. The trotters are Jack Wilkes, 2:12¼, by Guy Wilkes; Jay Kay, 2:16¼, by Jay Bird; Colonel Osborne, 2:19¼, by Shea Alcone; Gurney Girl, 2:23¼, by Gregory the Great; Kenneth Mac, 2:23¼, by Robby Burns; Pauline Simmons, by Simmons, and a colt by Moko. The pacers are Gallagher, 2:08½, by Royal Rysdyk; Clea S., 2:09¼, by Charlie Fisk; Tommy H., 2:12¾, by Delmarch; Jim Kyle, 2:12¼, by Tip Top; Sir Dair, 2:13¼, by Mountaineer, and Eria Pointer, by Star Pointer, out of Javelin, 2:08¼. The stable will be split up as usual, and every horse will be raced where Nuckols thinks they can win.

May Ride For Belmont.

Jockey Mountain, who has been doing some clever riding, will be seen under the silk of August Belmont, according to good information. Mountain rode well at New Orleans last winter and showed considerable skill at Bennings. It will be a big advantage to the Belmont stable to have the services of this boy, as the well known colors will be seen often during the metropolitan season. Alexander Shields and E. R. Thomas were after Mountain, but it looks as if Belmont beat them out.

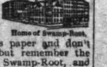
Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

Prevalency of Kidney Disease.

Most people do not realize the alarming increase and remarkable prevalency of kidney disease. While kidney disorders are the most common diseases that prevail, they are almost the last recognized by patient and physicians, who content themselves with doctoring the effects, while the original disease undermines the system.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best, Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.



Home of Swamp-Root.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

Lunch Room!

Ice Cream and Soft Drinks

I have fitted up my place of business on Main Street next to the Walton Hotel for the sale of Ice Cream and Soft Drinks and will also have a

LUNCH ROOM.

I will also keep on hand fresh fruits of all kinds Everything new and clean. I respectfully solicit a share of the public patronage.

C. L. PRICE

PARIS GREEN

"Bug Brand"

The Kind That Kills.

Haydon & Robertson's

CORNER DRUG STORE.

No National Holiday.

We have no "national" holidays, not even the Fourth of July. Of course that holiday, like several others, is national in the sense that it is observed all over the country; but not in the sense that it has been made a holiday by an act of congress. Congress has no right to pass an act making a legal holiday in the states; that power is vested in the state legislatures. Congress may make a holiday in the District of Columbia and at all posts and in all buildings that belong to the government, but to make a holiday legal in any state there must be an act of the legislature to that effect. Even Thanksgiving day is not a national holiday; the president merely recommends that it be observed. There are a few states in which the day is not a legal holiday.—Chicago News.

Note It Down.

We all have bright friends whose opinions are valuable to us in regard to our reading. They seldom recommend books that are not well worth while, and yet at times we forget the books recommended by these helpful readers just when we might be able to find them. This item is a reminder to write down such recommendations of good books to read at the time when they are made. Keep a little list of books to read, and then when selecting for a vacation, a birthday gift or the holidays you will not be at a loss.—St. Nicholas.

Game For Little People.

A good game from the kindergarten leads to accuracy and discrimination in the use of the senses. Several objects are grouped on a table; a child is blindfolded; one object is removed; the child tells which is gone.

Conundrums.

Why did the scarlet runner run? Because the dog rose.

When did the baker bake? When the loafer loafed.

Why did the coal scuttle? Because the tongs were snappy.

Marching Song.

Bring the comb and play upon it.
Marching here we come!
Willie cocks his highland bonnet;
Johnnie beats the drum.

Mary Jane commands the party,
Peter leads the rear;
Feet in time, alert and hearty,
Each a grenadier!

All in the most martial manner
Marching double quick,
While the napkin like a banner
Waves upon a stick.

Here's enough of fame and pillage;
Great commander Jane!
Now that we've been round the village,
Let's go home again.

For the Campaign

Kentucky elects a full State ticket this fall, and the campaign and election will be strenuous You cannot keep posted unless you read a Democratic paper that prints THE NEWS without fear or favor. The

Louisville Times

Does This

We have made a special limited arrangement whereby we can send, by mail,

The Times

FIVE MONTHS

The News-Leader

12 MONTHS.

For Only $2.35.

Send your order for the combination to THIS PAPER (or to The Louisville Times) At Once, as the offer will positively be withdrawn SEPTEMBER 1.

Warning

If you have kidney and bladder trouble and do not use Foley's Kidney Cure, you will have only yourself to blame for results, as it positively cures all forms of kidney and bladder and bladder diseases. Sold by the Red Cross Drug Store.

DR. J. M. BURTON
RESIDENT DENTIST.
TEETH EXTRACTED
WITHOUT PAIN

OFFICE—Hagan Block, up stairs
SPRINGFIELD, KY.
All Dental Work Strictly
First-class.

DR. J. C. MUDD
Physician and Surgeon
Office hours 8 to 9 a.m.,
1 to 2 p.m.,
Offices over Haydon's Drugstore

J. H. Lampton, M. D.
Office in Opera House.

Office 'Phone No. 5.
Residence No 38

W. F. GRIGSBY
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW.
Office over People's Bank,
SPRINGFIELD KY.

J. B. ROBARDS M. W. HYATT
RoBARDS & HYATT
Physicians and Surgeons
Office over C. W. Hagan's grocery, opposite Presbyterian church.

Dr. W. W. Ray
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.
Office over Haydon & Robertson's Drug Store.
Phones { Office 115,
Residence 172

JOHN Y. MAYES
FUNERAL DIRECTOR
AND LICENSED EMBALMER
TELEPHONE
DAY 119, NIGHT 74
SPRINGFIELD KY

Railroad Schedule.

Following is the time schedule now in effect on the Bardstown and Springfield branch railroad:

No. 41—Leaves Louisville at 4:30 p m.; Bardstown Junction 5:22 p.m.; Bardstown, 6:06 p.m arrives at Springfield, 7:05 p m.

No. 42—Leaves Springfield at 5:20 a m ; Bardstown, 6:07 a.m.; Bardstown Junction, 6:50 a.m., arrives at Louisville, 7:40 a.m.

No. 43—Leaves Louisville at 8:20 a.m.; Bardstown Junction 9:10 a.m.; Bardstown, 11.00 a.m. arrives at Springfield, 12:30 p.m

No.44—Leaves Springfield a 1:00 p.m.; Bardstown, 2:20 p.m. Bardstown Junction, 4:35 p.m. arrives at Louisville, 5:45 p.m.

No. 90, Sundays only—Leaves Springfield at 7:15 a.m,; Bardstown 8 a.m.; Bardstown Junction 8:45 a.m.; arrives at Louisville, 9:35 a.m.

No. 91, Sundays only—Leaves Louisville at 6 p.m.; Bardstown Junction, 6:45 p.m.; Bardstown, 7:30 p.m;, arrives at Springfield, 8:25 p.m.

KILL THE COUGH
AND CURE THE LUNGS
WITH Dr. King's
New Discovery
FOR COUGHS PRICE
COLDS 50c & $1.00.
Trial Bottle Free
AND ALL THROAT AND LUNG TROUBLES.
GUARANTEED SATISFACTORY
OR MONEY REFUNDED.

Jasper on Market.

Mr. Jasper Whallen, formerly with Mr. J. H. Kearns, of Lebanon. Ky., is now associated with W. L. Smith, Market Street, between 3rd and 4th, Louisville, Ky. We cordially invite our friends and your friends to call on us when in the city, and to send us orders for any goods you may need.

Straight Whiskies $2.25 to $4 Per Gallon. Bottled in bond $1.00 per quart, $10 per case.

We ship to all points from Louisville House or from 423 and 425 State Street, New Albany, Indiana.

W. L. Smith.

Grain Cradles.

I have on hand plenty of grain cradles, made of the best natural growth timber. At the same old stand. W. H. Bond
Springfield Ky.

TOWN.. ..TOPICS.

Local Happenings of Interest. The Freshest and Latest.

All About Yourself, Friends and Acquaintances.

Get jar tops and gums at Lawrence's grocery.

Try Satisfaction, best coffee, 18c at Lawrence's grocery.

Stone jars and jugs. all sizes, 7½c per gallon at Lawrence's grocery.

Fruit jars, pints, quarts, half gallons, cheap at Lawrence's grocery.

Buy the Fairbanks, Morse engines and crushers, best made.
N. G. Marks, Agt.

Machinery of all kinds overhauled at N G. Marks' machine shop. Gasoline engines a specialty.

Have your knives, plow points cycles, cythes and lawn mowers ground at my shop.
N. G. Marks.

Manager John Kelley will open the skating rink for the accomodation of the lovers of the sport this (Thursday) evening.

FOR SALE—A black mare will work anywhere, also a 2-year old Waco Dare filly.
M. . REED,

Good paint will not blister in hot weather. Green Seal is used the year 'round Summer and Winter. Sold by W. L. Yancy, Mackville, Ky.

FOR RENT—Two nice rooms in the Searcy flat. Water connections in back room. Apply to N. L. Searcy or to G. C. Carpenter.

Paint security—if you know little or nothing about paint you had better use Green Seal and be safe. For sale by W. L. Yancy, Mackville, Ky.

LOST—On the streets of Springfield about 10 days ago a Ten Dollar bill. Finder will please return to S B. THOMPSON.

Ever wake up in the morning with the nose stuffed up and dry? That's catarrh! A $1.00 outfit of Ho-o mei will cure you Money back if it fails. Sold by the Red Cross Drug Store.

I will sell at public auction on the street on next Saturday afternoon 45 suits of clothing and a lot of hats and shoes.
S. M. CAMPBELL.

The old notion that is not good to paint in hot weather is a false one. Green Seal and a good painter can be trusted the hottest weather. Sold by W. L. Yancy, Mackville, Ky.

John Barnett was arrested and tried before Judge Litsey last week for using abusive and insulting language and plead guilty and was fined $50 and costs. Mrs. Ann Chesser was prosecuting witness.

Dr. Bellbaum. formerly druggist for C. J. Haydon, but who has been living at Cave City for the past six months, has returned to accept a position with Leo Haydon, of the Red Cross Drug Store. Dr. Bellbaum and his wife havve many friends in Springfield who will welcome them back.

The second day of the Perryville fair which begins August 14 and continues three days, will be Old Soldiers' day. All soldiers who took part in the Civil War that either wore the blue or the gray are invited to attend on that day. A program has been arranged for their pleasure by having them taken to the battle field in a body, where appropriate services will be held for the occasion.

Dr. J H. Lampton had quite an unusual experience in his practice on last Saturday. He was called to the home of Mr. E. H. Cocanougher who lives on Mr. Charlie Brady's place near town to attend Mrs. Cocanougher in child birth. While the Doctor was waiting the wife of Mr. Cocanougher's brother who lives in the same house became suddenly sick and gave birth to a fine baby. The other baby arrived fifteen minutes later thus there were two additions to the household with a very short space of time.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers don't sicken or gripe. Small pills, easy to take. Sold by the Red Cross Drug Store.

Your stomach won't let you eat a hearty meal without pain or distress, get the help of Mi-o-na stomach tablets. Money back if it fails. Sold by the Red Cross Drug Store.

Badly Cut.

Augustus Ott, a cigar maker employed in J. A. Johnson's cigar factory, of this place, received several ugly slashes across the face on Sunday last as a result of an encounter with Jack Cleaver in Lebanon. The affair took place in a drug store and accounts are conflicting as to the particulars. It seems that Ott had had some previous trouble with Lindsey Cleaver, a younger brother of Jack Cleaver, and the latter was taking him to task for it. Cleaver is said to have struck the first blow and the two men clinched falling to the floor with Ott on top. While in that position Cleaver began to use his knife and slashed his opponent three or four times across the face inflicting serious wounds two of which narrowly escaped cutting his eyes. Both men were placed under arrest and their trials are set for Monday at Lebanon.

Teachers Institute.

The Washington County Teachers Institute is in session this week at the Graded School building and an interesting session is being conducted The institute organized on Monday with an enrollment of 64 teachers. Prof George Colvin was elected chairman and Miss Ella Shaunty secretary. The following committees were named: On program; Misses Sallie Carrico Ella Shaunty and Mr. William Cheatham; committee on music, Misses Emma Nunan, Susie Pope, Katie Humphry and Mr. Frank Hardin.

Prof. White. of State College, at Lexington, is instructor of the institute and he is proving quite a popular one with the teachers. Among the visitors from a distance are Mrs. Eubanks, wife of the editor of the Southern School Journal, Prof. Harmon, of London, Ky., and Prof. J. L. Harmon, of Cherry Brothers College Bowling Green, The institute lasts until Saturday and the News-Leader next week will give the proceedings more fully.

Lawn Fete and Ice Cream Supper.

For the purpose of paying an outstanding balance on the piano now in use in the primary department and of starting a library for the High School, Miss Emma Nunan, will give a lawn fete on the school grounds on Tuesday evening August 20, from 4 to 10 p.m. Ices will be served and a delightful musical program instrumental and vocal will be rendered. so that a pleasant time can be had by all. The lawn will be decorated in school colors and seats arranged to accommodate as many as may come. The refreshments have been generously promised by the patrons of the school and judging from the success of last year's fete we feel assured that this will be a success in every way. We have witnessed on many occasions the loyal support of the community of all school entertainments and feel confident that this will be equally successful. Old and young will find occasion to thank Miss Nunan for this opportunity.

For Sale

A good seven room dwelling on Grandy Avenue.
Lot contains nearly two acres
House newly painted.
Nice location.
Will sell reasonable.
For further particulars call on T. D. Tapp or McElroy & Wharton Real Estate and Insurance Agents, Springfield, Ky.

Why dose the stomach to cure catarrh of the nose and throat? treat the disease locally with Hy o-mei. Complete outfit $1., money back if it fails. Sold by the Red Cross Drug Store.

For Sale.

A two horse power gasoline engine, in good running order, will sell cheap. Apply to the Blue Grass M'F'G Co. of W. F. Grigsby, Atty. 4t

VEILS

Fancy Drape Veils and Auto Veils in all the popular shades.

All ready-to-wears and Street Hats to be closed out at 50c. All goods to be sold at greatly reduced prices.

MISS KNOTT.

Opposite Postoffice.

PERSONAL.

Lieut. W. O. Reed is on the sick list this week.

Mr. W. S. Gibbs attended the Danville fair last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Croake are at Tatham Springs.

Mr. Hopper Brewer, of Lebanon, spont Sunday here.

Mr. Charles Duncan, of Louisville, is visiting relatives here.

Miss Addie W. Cox, of Louisville, is the guest of Mrs. J. I. Martin.

Mrs. T S. Mayes and daughter, Miss May, are at Tatham Springs.

County clerk W. F. Booker went to Tatham Springs yesterday.

Miss Julia Stagg, of Hustonville, is visiting Mrs. Jennie Talbott.

Miss May Mulvey, of Louisvill, is visiting Mrs, Irvine Wimsatt.

Mr. E. N. Hundley, of Lebanon, was over on business Tuesday.

Mrs. Cynthia Waterman, of New York is visiting Mrs. John F. Simms.

Lenard Baker is attending the fair at Cynthiana this week with his horses.

Mr. James Boswell and family have returned from a visit in Boyle county.

Mrs. Mary A. Noe has returned home from a visit to relatives in Louisville.

Miss Laura VanNatta, of Shelbyville, is the guest of Mr and Mrs. M. H. Jones.

Mr. Edwin Casey, of Lawrenceburg, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. John W. Lewis.

Rev. W. H. williams is holding a revival at Slewarts Creek in Marion county.

Mr. John Shuck McElroy, Jr. has returned from Danville where he spent two weeks.

Bob Noe is at Crab Orchard this week attending a convention of circuit court clerks.

Aunt Mary Thompson has been very sick with indigestion but is much better now.

Misses Acquin and Margaret Montgomery, of Louisville, are visiting the Misses Medley.

Mrs. Fred Hagan and son, Ivan, will go to Crab Orchard the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Mary Goatley, of Louisville, is visiting the family of her brother, W. T. Comstock.

Mr. Simpson Roberts left yesterday for Adair county where he will survey a turnpike road.

Mr. W. D. Claybrooke has returned from a visit in the Bluegrass, Beargrass and Pennyrile.

Misses Nanie Rapier and Nora Hurst, of Bardstown, were guests of the Misses Price last Friday.

Mr. Derwood Shewmaker and John Raney were over near Lebanon calling Sunday afternoon.

Prof. Clelland Cunnidgham is at home from Clinton, S. C., where he has been taking a law course.

Miss Elizabeth Leachman has returned from an extended visit with her sister, Mrs J. B. Hill, of Lebanon.

Misses Myrtle and Mabel Price, Nellie and Jennie Greene will go to Danville Friday to visit friends.

Charlie Roberts, of Louisville, who has a position in The Big Four railroad office, is visiting his parents here

Mr. Morrie, Durrett has returned from Lexington where he has been taking a summer course at the State College.

Mr. and Mrs Charles H. McIntire and children are visiting the family of Mr. R, C. Craycroft in Meade county.

Mrs. William M. Stallings, of Smith Grove, spent a few days here last week with friends and is now visiting at Mackville.

Miss Willa Knott, Mr. Spalding Clements and Walter Clements left Sunday for a two weeks' stay at Rome City. Ind.

Mrs. James Hayes and Miss Margie Bonta, of Mapel Hill, spent a part of last week with their sister, Mrs. S. H. Bishop.

Mr. and Mrs. Conried Hertlein and guest, Miss Guetig, and Adolph Hertlein leave today for a week's outing at Griffin Springs.

Miss Fannie Smith and Miss Jennie McCabe entertained at euchre last evening in honor of their guest, Miss May McCarney of Lexington.

Miss Sara Simms and aunt, Mrs. Cynthia Waterman, were honor guests at a reception given by Mrs. Len Mattingly at Lebanon Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Emma Karrick and daughter, Vella, of Lexington, visited Mrs. Charles Robertson yesterday. Mrs. Karrick is making a visit to relatives at Maud.

Mrs. A. G. Yankey and daughter, Miss Eliza, of Lexington, and Mr. and Mrs G. Bert Sanbourne, of Kansas City, are visiting at the home of J. S. Yankey.

Miss Flaget Simms and Messrs. Wathan Simms and Hood Cunningham attended the reception given by Mrs. Len Spalding, Tuesday evening at Lebanon.

Harry Hansbrough who is connected with a daily at Sheffield. Ala., drove through the country from Hodgenville Saturday and spent a couple of days here visiting his sister, Mrs. J. R. Gore.

The family of Mr. F. M. Martin and guests Mr. and Mrs. George Hobbs, of Covington, and Miss Veola Brown spent four days camping and fishing on Rolling Fork in Marion county returning Monday.

Mr. Wallace Duncan is at home from South Park where he has been employed as telegraph operator the past year. He will enter the State College at Lexington this fall to take a four years course in electrical engineering.

Resolutions of Respect.

The Alumnae Association of St. Catharine adopted the following resolutions of respect in memoriam of the death of Florence Cecelia Hamilton a bright attractive member who died of typhoid fever on Thursday, July 25, 1907.

Resolved, Florence Cecelia Hamilton by the will of our Heavenly Father has been removed from our midst to a heavenly abode, and we the members of the Alumnae realize that our loss has been great, that the influence of this sweet young life will live perpetually in memory's shrine an object lesson for good.

Resolved, That Florence Cecelia Hamilton will be missed from the home where she was a devoted daughter and sister possessed of rare traits of female loveliness that stamp the true woman.

Resolved, We tender our sympathy to the bereaved family, father, mother, sisters and brothers. trusting that He who doeth all things for our good may bind up the broken cords and heal the wounded hearts.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the parents and brothers and sisters.

MATTIE WALKER,
MOTCH HYATT,
MATTIE ROBERTSON,
JUDA WIGGINTON,
ALLIE RIEVES,
ROXIE WAKEFIELD.

Cures Blood Skin Diseases, Cancer. Greatest Blood Purifier Free

If your blood is impure, thin, diseased, hot or full of humors, if you have blood poison, cancer, carbuncles, eating sores, scrofula, eczema, itching risings and bumps, scabby, pimply skin, bone pains, catarrh, rheumatism, or any blood or skin disease, take Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.) Soon all sores heal, aches and pains stop and the blood is made pure and rich. Druggists or by express $1 per large bottle. Sample free by writing Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga. B. B. B., is especially advised for chronic, deep-seated cases, as it cures after all else fails. 9—1yr

BISIGHT
KING OF THE BIFOCAL
BISIGHT

Ask for Bisight? The new invisible Double Glass The only double glass that is ground in one PIECE, for far and near work. We also sell the Kryptox and Opifex Bifocal Glass.

DR. W. C. GRIGSBY

has one of the best Optical Stores in the State. He has added to his store the following instruments: The Geneva combined Retinascope and Ophthalmoscope and the C. I. Ophthalmometer for measuring the astigmatic Eyes. He has installed a water motor and put in a dynamo for lighting up the above instruments. He fills Occulists Prescription and does all kinds of frame work. Frames made to order to fit any face He is making a specialty of fitting glasses and fits them correctly and guarantees satisfaction.

W. C. GRIGSBY,
The Leading Optician,
BARDSTOWN, - KENTUCKY.

Letter List.

List of letters remaining uncalled for in the Springfield, Ky P. O., week ending Aug 7 h 1907.

Ernest Brady,
Mrs. Chitty Wesherhorn,
Miss Effie Cooke (2),
Miss Mattie Elliott;
Claude Elliott.
Mrs. Bessie Hamilton,
T. M. Lanham,
Mrs. Lona Johns.
Wallace Jones,
Mrs. E. H. McMerry.
Mrs. Willie McElroy,
T. B. Taylor,
Theo Thompson,
Mrs. H. W. Smith,
Mrs. J. D. Quarles,

Persons calling for these letters will please say advertised and give date of list.
W. A. Waters, P. M

Keep the pores open and the skin clean when you have a cut, burn, bruise or scratch. DeWitt's Carbolized Witch Hazel Salve penetrates the pores and heals quickly. Sold by the Red Cross Drug Store.

FRANKLIN'S GARB.

The Philosopher Often Taken For a Quaker, Though He Was Not One.

Benjamin Franklin was often taken for a Quaker, but the philosopher did not belong to the Society of Friends. Franklin, being a simple citizen of Philadelphia, wore clothes of a fashion set by the Quakers, a plain gray or drab suit. He continued to wear this costume while he was in France. Once when his court suit was not ready he appeared in his "republican" garb before Louis XVI. He became the fashion in France and indeed in nearly all Europe, and it was at one time the proper thing for young republicans and litterateurs to dress a la Franklin. The German historian, Schlosser, describing Franklin's appearance in the French drawing rooms, speaks of "the simplicity of his external appearance, the friendly meekness of the old man and the apparent humility of the Quaker." In truth, the humility and the meekness were mostly matters of appearance, and the Quaker aspect was only an aspect. Franklin was brought up by his parents in Boston in the Congregational church and was intended by them for the ministry. When he went to Philadelphia, he says in his autobiography, he paid his "annual subscription to the only Presbyterian minister or meeting we had in Philadelphia." But he distinctly avows his disagreement with Presbyterian doctrine and later was quite as ready to welcome and assist Whitefield, the Methodist, with whom he also openly disagreed. Later still, he took a pew in an Episcopal church, but he was never a communicant Episcopalian. He says much about religion in his autobiography, explains how he became a deist in his youth, but abandoned the doctrine because it was not useful in making men good. His own creed he declares to be belief in God and in the immortality of the soul. "Though my scheme was not wholly without religion," he writes, "there was no mark of any of the distinguishing tenets of any particular sect."—Youth's Companion.

Followed Instructions.

Mudge—This watch has been stopped for two or three days. Jeweler—Lemme see it. There is nothing the matter with it except that it has not been wound. Mudge—I thought maybe that was it. I remember you told me to wind it up just before I went to bed, and I haven't been to bed for three nights.

Physiology.

A pupil in a school near Chatham square, New York city, thus defined the word "spine:" "A spine is a long, limber bone. Your head sets on one end, and you set on the other."—Lippincott's Magazine.

Hard to Suit.

"When your mother-in-law fell into the water, why didn't you help to get her out?"

"My dear madam, you must know that nothing I've ever done has pleased her!"—Judy.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR
Cures Colds; Prevents Pneumonia

Great Bargain
and Remnant Sale.

To begin Saturday next at
THE "BIG STORE"

We will be through invoicing by then and will have a lot of remnants and to offer besides many other bargains. We are cuiling from every department some items which we are going to put a price on that will move them quick.

ODDS AND ENDS

Just received a lot of Fall Style Ladies Suits and Skirts.

The Robertson-Claybrooke Co.,
INCORPORATED.

Bargains! Big Bargains!
AT COST
IN TIN AND GLASSWARE.

Good bargains in Mason's Jars, pints, quarts and half gallons.

My stock of Groceries is complete in every line
Meat, Lard, Sugar and Flour
sold at close prices for cash. Country produce in exchange, same as cash.

CASH PAID FOR EGGS.
FIVE PER CENT OFF FOR CASH

W. P. LAWRENCE

KEEP YOURSELF DRY

While in the Tobacco patch by buying one our

Tobacco

Water-Proof Suits

Something which every Tobacco grower needs. Call and see them at

GRUNDY & McINTIRE'S STORE.

MAIMS HIS ONLY ARM BY FALLING

Worst Mutilated Soldier Consoled by Fact That Neck Is Still Whole.

"Cherokee Bill," the worst mutilated soldier living, has broken his arm, the only one he has. Bill lives at the Soldiers' home in the suburbs of Washington. He started as an Indian fighter in the Eighth cavalry. Some thoughtful Indian gave him a perfect scalping, which Bill humorously refers to as "the original Cherokee strip." Bill also is minus one leg and one arm and is covered with wounds and scars. The leg which assists in Bill's support shows seventeen bullet wounds.

After his discharge from the regular army Bill enlisted in the rough riders and saw service in Cuba under President Roosevelt. The trimming up of his physical being was then completed.

As the result of participating in the peaceful pastime of falling on the sidewalk Bill is now nursing a broken arm. He says he is glad he has yet to realize the sensations of a broken neck.

Boy of Three Sent to Jail.

Great excitement was caused all over Switzerland when the news got abroad that the criminal judge at Weinfelden, in the canton of Thurgovia, had sentenced a child of three years to three and a half months' im-

World's Biggest Power House.

When the contracts recently let by the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company are completed Brooklyn will have the largest power house in the world, says the Brooklyn Eagle. These contracts call for the duplication of the present power house on Kent avenue. The total cost will be upward of $5,000,000 and the capacity upward of 150,000 horsepower. What this will mean for the service can be seen from the fact that on the heaviest days the present system does not call for over 120,000 horsepower from all sources. On the completion of the new structure its dynamos could keep in motion the traffic of the entire system should all the other power houses break down simultaneously.

A Child's Sermon.

On one occasion Harry and Eddie, two little brothers, took it into their heads to have church. As Harry was the older of the two, he said, "I'll be the preacher and preach you a sermon." "Well," said Eddie, "and I'll be the people." And so Harry began by announcing his text. "My brethren, my text today is 'Be kind.' There are some little texts in the Bible for little children, and this is one of them.

"Firstly.—Be kind to father. Don't bother him when he's busy. Don't make a noise when his head aches. Father has to work hard and earn money.

"Secondly.—Be kind to mother. Don't make her tell you several times to do the same thing. My brethren, we ought to mind right off.

"Thirdly.—Be kind to Mary. She is small and lame and can't talk plain.

"Finally, my brethren, be kind to the cat. Amen!"—Brooklyn Eagle.

The Flying Thimble.

Have a thimble which easily fits your forefinger. Show the thimble on the forefinger of your right hand and lay the finger with thimble on the palm of your left, which you then close. Now withdraw the finger minus the thimble. The company will naturally imagine that it is in the left hand, but on opening it they are astonished to see it empty. The secret is that you do not place the thimble in the left hand at all, but in the act of laying the forefinger of the right hand on the left you quickly bend the finger and leave the thimble secreted between the ball of your thumb and the root of the forefinger, only placing the bare finger in the left. This you instantly close and then withdraw the forefinger. You can eventually produce the thimble from your pocket or show it again on the tip of the forefinger by a reverse movement.

Riddles.

In what place are two heads better than one? In a barrel.

How is a poultry dealer compelled to earn his living? By fowl means.

Why should a spider appear to have wings? Because it often takes a fly.

When is a dog most like a human being? When he is between a man and a boy.

Why are clergymen like brakemen? Because they do a great deal of coupling.

The Rabbits' Wedding.

The bachelor sultan of Rabbitland
Met a lady as sweet as honey.
She gave him her heart, and she gave him her hand,
And the day of the wedding was sunny.

The wedding banquet was very grand;
The sultan spent lots of money.
The lady now reigns with him o'er the land;
They call her Sultana Bunny.

Nerve.

"The great requisite for playing cards or the horses," remarked Mr. Everwise, "is nerve."

"Yes," answered young Miss Torkins, "it must take a great deal of nerve to enable a man to come home so often and tell his folks that still further economy will be necessary."—Washington Post.

The only failure a man ought to fear is failure in cleaving to the purpose he sees to be best.—George Eliot.

Conundrums.

Why is [illegible] like a sailor? Because [illegible] sea (C).

When is [illegible] the stairs dangerous? When [illegible] down.

Why is a baldheaded man like a hunting dog? He makes a little hair (hare) go a great way.

Royal Spanish Coach.

The state coach used by the king of Spain is drawn by eight pure white horses, with white plumes and white harness.

Male Blushers and Their Cure.

"A good many men blush," said a physician; "some so painfully that they come to me to be cured. The cure I recommend is an old one. It is the abandonment of overheavy clothing, especially of woolen socks. Amazing it is how many male blushers have a predilection for thick socks of wool. But some blushers wear light enough clothes. To them I can only recommend a nerve treatment. I advise them to make speeches at banquets, to be witnesses in murder trials, to go to teas and dances, to develop, in short, the nerve, as a wrestler develops his muscle. Blushing is a difficult disorder to cure. As a rule, it passes away of itself when the victim reaches his thirty-fifth year."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

The London Pit.

The pit we used to read about in English novels has almost disappeared from the London theaters, surviving visibly at the music halls, though much abbreviated. The orchestra stalls have supplanted it with their high charges so that the parquet appears quite American. Back of these stalls, in what we should call the parquet circle, are the cheap seats forming the modern pit. High and low, rich and poor, are thus brought directly in contrast.—Travel Magazine.

Rooks and Sunday.

All the animal world appears to know a Sunday from a week day. There is a tradition in Lancashire and perhaps elsewhere that the rooks always commence building on the first Sunday in March. This has been frequently verified by observation, and the punctuality of the rooks might almost claim to exceed the limits of coincidence.—Country Life.

Intended to Pay.

The kindly old lady from the country had purchased a pair of gloves in a department store.

"Cash!" shouted the saleslady.

"My land," exclaimed the old lady, fumbling in her valise, "I'll give it to you just as soon as I find my pocketbook!"—Harper's Weekly.

He Cinched It.

"My boy, I like you, and I want you to marry my daughter, but have you spoken to her mother about it?"

"No, sir."

"Then, to cinch it for you, I'll oppose the match."—Denver Post.

Mice That Were Tipplers.

A correspondent writes: In Quetta some years ago I had occasion to go early one morning into a miscellaneous store kept by a Parsee, who also kept a liquor bar. As I entered the shop I noticed a mouse reeling across the floor, and I remarked to the shopkeeper that the mouse seemed to be hurt, but his reply astonished me. He said that that mouse and several others that infested his shop were confirmed drunkards. During the night they regularly drank all the liquor which remained in the glasses which the soldiers had used in the evening for their drinks.—Exchange.

Crushed.

"Halloa, Badger," said Thorpe, "met a friend of yours the other day. He's been talking about you, and I feel it my duty to tell you what he said."

"Ah, well, I don't care to hear what he said. I know it was something disagreeable," replied Badger.

"How do you know that?"

"Because you are so anxious to tell it. Good morning."

The Relief of It.

"Well, I finally summed up the courage to speak to her father last night. I tell you, it was a great relief."

"Gee! What did he say?"

"Oh, you misunderstand me. He wasn't in."—Philadelphia Press.

Lucknow's Great Hall.

Connected with the Mohammedan mosque at Lucknow, India, is the largest room in the world without columns, being 162 feet long, 54 feet wide and 53 feet high. It was built during the great famine in 1784 to supply work for a starving people. It is a solid mass of concrete of simple form and still simpler construction. In its erection a mold or framework of timber and brick several feet in thickness was first made, which was then filled with concrete. The concrete was allowed about a year to set and dry, when the mold was removed. Although the building has been standing so long, it is said to show no signs of decay or deterioration.

Nails.

America has the honor of having made the first cut nails, toward the close of the eighteenth century. Before that nails were made by hand, and their manufacture was a household industry. Cut nails are made by machinery from plates rolled to the proper width and thickness. They may be made of steel or of malleable iron. Wire nails, though originally a French invention, were brought to perfection in the United States.

Killing Goldenrod.

Years ago we bought a farm that had one field so thickly covered with this weed that ten acres would not have pastured a goose, writes a correspondent in National Stockman. There was absolutely no grass. We mowed it off and put about five sheep to the acre and fed enough wheat bran to keep them in a thriving condition, and the next season a finer blue grass pasture was never seen. They had killed "every last plant." The cows won't eat it and it is fortunate that they will not, for if they did no use could be made of their milk, but sheep like it and will thrive on the young growth.

Pasturing Sheep on Clover.

In pasturing either clover or alfalfa sheep should not be turned in until the clover or alfalfa is well grown, and then should be turned in when well filled up on other grass and when the dew or wet is off; and after being so turned in should never be taken off, though a shed may be provided where the sheep may shade at midday. On such pasture, with their mothers, the lambs will make prodigious growth.—Professor Kennedy of Ames, Ia.

Convalescents need a large amount of nourishment in easily digested form.

Scott's Emulsion is powerful nourishment—highly concentrated.

It makes bone, blood and muscle without putting any tax on the digestion.

ALL DRUGGISTS; 50c. AND $1.00.

DE RAYLAN'S DIARY.

Mystery of Russian Man-Woman Finally Solved.

FOOLED M. POBEDONOSTZEFF

Remarkable Story Revealed In Memoirs of Ex-Secretary to Czar's Consul In Chicago, Whose Sex Was Not Discovered Until Her Death.

The life secret of Nicolai de Raylan, for years secretary to the Russian consul at Chicago, who, after masquerading as a man for eighteen years, was found after her death in Arizona in December, 1906, to have been a woman, has been revealed. The story, never before published, containing her reason for starting out on a career of deception that proved her one of the most accomplished actresses in the world and disclosing a Russian scandal that has been hidden for years, is contained in her diary and private correspondence recently discovered by Michael Feinberg, a clerk in the law office of Gardner, Stern & Anderson of Chicago, attorneys for James Reddick, public administrator. Most of the documents and all of the diary are in the Russian language.

CONVINCED THE PROCURATOR SHE WAS TELLING THE TRUTH.

The diary and a letter from her mother received through a go-between more than a year ago show De Raylan's real family name to have been Taletsky. Her given name is not shown by any of the documents. The diary covers a period between the years 1888 and 1892, the year of her arrival as a refugee in Chicago.

The first phase of her life traced in her journal, many pages of which indicate that she was a drunkard, a gambler and a profane roue, depicts her as a schoolgirl. Her mother had placed her in a government school for girls in Kiev, Russia, where the Taletsky family home was situated, and between the ages of fifteen and sixteen years she was to graduate. Somewhere around this period her mother, who had been well to do before, suddenly acquired 250,000 rubles (about $125,000).

Nicolai discovered the existence of this sum and became suspicious concerning it. In some way she found that it had been settled on her mother as trustee by some member of the nobility, to be conserved in the interest of Nicolai. This discovery made the young girl curious as to the reasons for the settlement and caused her to wish for her father, to find from him what mystery surrounded her origin. Nicolai writes of various interviews with her mother, in which the latter refused to give information.

As the time of the graduation from the girls' school drew near the girl conceived a Napoleonic scheme to force her mother to pay her a considerable sum of money or at least to divulge the information she sought so eagerly, or both. She had her inspiration in two statutes of Russia, one making it a crime, punishable by imprisonment, to gain entrance by any means for a boy into a girls' school. The other was the law regulating compulsory military service, which made it a serious crime to hide the sex of a male child.

The completeness of detail with which the sixteen-year-old girl set about to prove herself a boy shows her to have possessed originality and imagination to the point of genius. No detail was left uncompleted. Before she made known to any one her purpose she made final and convincing arrangements to provide for evidence in case her sex was questioned.

She had been watched over from early childhood by a French governess, Louise Ratone, about nine years her senior. Affecting to take her governess into her confidence, she said, according to the diary:

"Louise, you've seen me in the house here posing as a girl, when in fact all the time I have been a boy. The purpose of my mother in disguising me in this way was to procure this money that has come to her."

She convinced Louise of the truth of her statement, and they entered into a compact, according to the diary, to leave Kiev together and enter on a campaign the purpose of which should be to force the mother to give up the information and the money. Nicolai told the governess she long had been secretly in love with her and would marry her as soon as the money was obtained.

The preparation for the assuming of male disguise consumed about two years, and the actual occurrences began to take place in 1892. It was apparently in 1891 that Louise Ratone, after the two girls had been at St. Petersburg a short time, wrote a letter to the late M. Pobedonostzeff telling him the chief facts of Nicolai's alleged case and asking for an interview.

The statesman and churchman, confidential adviser of the czar and who was sometimes called the dictator of Russia, took an interest in the case at once and summoned Nicolai to his palace. Nicolai went there alone and at the end of a private interview succeeded in convincing the procurator that she was telling the truth.

At the instance of the procurator she swore out a complaint against her mother in the courts of Odessa. These charges are now on record in Odessa, according to the diary. The procurator went to that city himself and advised the officials. Mrs. Taletsky was arrested, preparations were made for her trial, and she sought the advice of one Playakoy, an attorney of Kiev.

At this juncture Nicolai saw that discretion was the better part of valor and that she would probably be landed in prison herself if she submitted to the medical examination necessary to a formal hearing of the case, even though she had fooled the procurator. She had met in St. Petersburg a young woman named Zaney Rosdorhney, with whom she affected to fall in love, as she did with convincing cleverness nearly every woman she met, and whom she courted when Louise Ratone was not around. Both Nicolai and Louise saw that the "jig was up," and they abandoned their plans.

Zaney, the St. Petersburg sweetheart, raised money enough to start Nicolai on her travels, and the latter fled to Finland, informing Zaney and leaving a letter for the procurator, telling him that her filial devotion prevented her at the last moment from appearing against her mother; that she would flee to save the latter's name and honor.

The case against the mother proceeded to trial, and the procurator was chief witness for the government. Louise Ratone also appeared. The mother's attorney produced the doctor who had assisted at the birth of Nicolai and the Greek Catholic priest who had christened her. They both testified that they positively knew that Nicolai was a girl. The procurator flew into a rage. He said he had ocular evidence. The case was dismissed.

M. Pobedonostzeff now found himself in an embarrassing and delicate position. He had stood sponsor for Nicolai, personally supervised the proceedings and swore that she was a boy. He was in the humiliating circumstances of having to confess he had been fooled. The story was hushed up quickly, but the secret police of Russia were placed on the trail of the fleeing girl, and they tried for years to track her. In her diary she intimated her conviction that it would have gone hard with her if they had caught her and taken her back to Russia, and all through the remarkable document there is an undercurrent of fear of arrest.

She lived a short time in Finland, and then, with the remainder of Zaney's money, she fled to Antwerp after changing her name to Nicolai Konstantinevitch.

At Antwerp, Nicolai met a banker named Gittens, who gave her money and a letter of introduction to a banker named Wilson in Worcester, Mass.

She became extremely friendly with the stewardess of the liner on which she came to New York. The captain of the ship grew interested in his strange passenger and became suspicious of Nicolai's sex. He had many a quarrel with the stewardess for maintaining Nicolai was a man. Finally he made a bet of 60 francs with the stewardess, the test to be made by the captain. He interviewed Nicolai privately and then sought out at once the stewardess and paid the wager, admitting he had lost.

SHE GOT VERY FRIENDLY WITH THE STEWARDESS.

Arrived in Worcester, Nicolai talked things over with Wilson, the banker, and decided she had best go to Chicago. Mr. Wilson gave her a letter of introduction to a French grocer, whose name is blurred in the diary.

Here the strange diary ends. Nicolai eventually became secretary to the Russian consul general in Chicago, holding the position for thirteen years, until, overcome by tuberculosis, she went to Arizona. There upon her death the undertaker discovered her true sex.

My Hair is Scraggly

Do you like it? Then why be contented with it? Have to be? Oh, no! Just put on Ayer's Hair Vigor and have long, thick hair; soft, even hair. But first of all, stop your hair from coming out. Save what you have. Ayer's Hair Vigor will not disappoint you. It feeds the hair-bulbs; makes weak hair strong.

The best kind of a testimonial—"Sold for over sixty years."

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.
Also manufacturers of
Ayer's SARSAPARILLA. PILLS. CHERRY PECTORAL.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

No man ever landed a particularly easy position by trying to dodge work.

Almost every man imagines he would do a lot of philanthropic stunts if he had the money.

Why is it that the people with nothing to do but sit around and visit are such dreadful bores?

Some people imagine that by being impudent they are showing others they are "as good as anybody."

When a father and son are in business the son can usually tell of a lot of mistakes his father makes.

Almost any married man can make his friends smile by saying he is perfectly free to do as he pleases.

When the carbolic acid bottle finds itself next to the cough medicine on the shelf, Death stops sharpening his scythe to lean back and be merry.—Atchison Globe.

PEOPLE OF THE DAY

Japanese Statesman-Sailor.

Admiral Baron Gombei Yamamoto of the imperial Japanese navy, who is visiting this country, was minister of marine during the war with Russia. He was the guiding spirit of the Japanese fleets during that period, as much because of his courage and decision as that he was a member of the supreme council of war.

BARON GOMBEI YAMAMOTO.

Baron Yamamoto was fifty-four years old last September and is perhaps one of the youngest full admirals in the world. He is a graduate of the Japanese Naval college and first won distinction in the war with China. For his conduct in the naval battle of the Yalu he was promoted, after which his rise in the service was rapid. In 1900 he became a member of the imperial cabinet. The organization of the Japanese navy on its present basis is accredited largely to the constructive abilities of the admiral.

A Mariage de Convenance.

Gelett Burgess at the recent dinner of the American Booksellers' association of New York said: "I once knew a San Franciscan who married a girl for her money. She was not a pretty girl, and as time passed and love cooled she developed a rather tart tongue.

"One day her husband bought with his quarter's allowance a twenty horsepower automobile. He took the car home gayly and brought his wife out to the front door to look at it. She gave it one sneering glance and then said:

"'It's very nice, but if it hadn't been for my money it wouldn't be here.'

"'Well, Mamie,' said the husband quickly, 'if it hadn't been for your money you wouldn't be here yourself.'"

Praised by Roosevelt.

The bravery of Lieutenant Colonel Ayres of the United States army, whose wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Fairfax Ayres, has incurred the displeasure of officers of the Eighth cavalry, is unquestioned.

President Roosevelt and Lieutenant Colonel Ayres were in the Cuban campaign together. The president was lieutenant colonel of the rough riders.

One day the Tenth cavalry became involved in a skirmish, and Lieutenant Colonel Ayres, who was in command, distinguished himself for bravery. Colonel Roosevelt rode to his side when the smoke of battle had cleared away and, after saluting, exclaimed:

"Sir, I would like to be a private in your troops."—St. Louis Republic.

Foe of Subpoena Servers.

John D. Rockefeller, Standard Oil magnate, is a difficult proposition for process servers when he desires to remain in seclusion. United States Marshal Henkel of the New York district, who has subpoenaed Mr. Rockefeller oftener than any other living man, said recently: "When Mr. Rockefeller has nothing to say he does not try to evade service of subpoenas, but tells me to serve them upon his attorney. But when he does not want to testify he lets me find him—and I don't find him."

Mr. Rockefeller was born in New York state sixty-eight years ago, but most of his life has been spent in Ohio. He received a common school education and at nineteen was a partner in a Cleveland commission house. In 1865 he engaged in the oil business.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER.

Physically Mr. Rockefeller is far from a weakling. Above medium height and with a good pair of shoulders, he is stronger than most men of his years. The loss of his hair some time ago gave him a peculiar appearance, but that defect has been overcome by a wig. Mr. Rockefeller has always been a man of mystery even to business associates.

Sang at His Own Funeral.

At a funeral recently held in Pentwater, Mich., something occurred which was original, startling and sensational in character. After the last sad rites had been conducted by a gentleman of the cloth over the remains of the deceased a phonograph was brought forth and placed on the casket, and the assembled mourners and their friends heard the voice of the dead man singing one of his favorite hymns. This paradox of a man singing at his own funeral is believed to be the first on record, and the innovation opens up a new possibility, and if the custom grows dead men may soon be preaching their own funeral sermons.

The Drawback.

Mrs. Meeker (at the play)—I do wish you'd pay more attention to this play, George; it's as good as a sermon. Mr. Meeker (dozing)—It certainly is, my dear, but the darn orchestra wakes me up between acts.—Puck.

One's own thistle field is dearer to him than his neighbor's garden of roses.—German Proverb.

ART OF WALKING.

The First Requisite For a Good Gait Is a Good Poise.

The delightful art of walking, the happy practice of vagabondage which Stevenson and Whitman praised so well, the most innocent of pastimes, the simplest of exercises, is in danger of falling into abeyance, says Bliss Carman in the Delineator.

Our fashionable people affect one ridiculous manner of walking and then another year after year, but almost no one thinks it worth while to learn to walk normally. The normal walk is not a matter of caprice, but of art. It lends itself to the infinite varieties of character and becomes in each instance expressive of the individual, so that we recognize a man by his gait as easily as by his voice.

The first requisite of good walking is a good poise. If the body is well poised at each point of its motion, the motion itself must be good. The process of walking which has been described as a series of falls is, to be somewhat more accurate, a series of falls and recoveries so insensibly merged that there is no saying where the fall ends and the recovery begins. In walking we are in a continuous state of unstable equilibrium. We pass gradually from one position to another, yet are never out of poise. We are playing with gravity. A good walker spins the earth deftly beneath his feet, as an acrobat in a circus, lying on his back, spins a barrel or a painted ball.

BEHIND THE SCENES.

The Indifference of the Actor to His Stage Companions.

The indifference of the actor of almost every grade to the play and his fellow players is to the outsider one of the many ununderstandable things about this little known profession. There is an authentic case of an actor who gained sufficient favor and fortune in a certain play to appear in it continuously for four seasons. Although he naturally played the principal part, he did not appear until the second act, and it is a well known fact that during those four years he never saw the first act played or any part of it. There is no life behind the scenes, because actors and actresses who amount to anything go at once to their dressing rooms immediately their scenes on the stage are finished.

I recall an instance of a young woman whose dancing was a genuine sensation on Broadway for several years. She was very young and very pretty, and her engagement did much to establish the success of the theater at which she appeared. It must have been quite two years after she achieved her first success when the star, who was also the manager and owner of the theater, casually remarked one night in his dressing room: "Let's go down on the stage and look at Miss —— dance. I have never seen her, but they tell me she is very good."—Outing Magazine.

Caribou Horns.

Not one out of every ten female caribou has horns. When it does have them they are much smaller than those of the bull. The horns of the female, however, in general have many more branches than those of the bull, and they are much more regularly and finely formed. The cows carry their horns much longer than the bulls. They have been seen with their horns in the month of April. The old bulls shed their horns from the 10th to the last of November. They hardly ever carry them after the month of November. The young bulls shed theirs from the first of December until the middle of February. The younger the animal the longer he retains his horns.

HUMOR OF THE HOUR

Two Scotch Ministers.

A resident of Hudson, Wis., was deploring the resignation of Senator Spooner.

"The senate cannot afford to lose a mind like that," he said. "I know the man well. He practiced law in this town for fifteen years or thereabout. He won every case he set his hand to.

"It was no surprise to us Hudsonites to find that John C. Spooner was the finest legal mind in the senate. We knew him of old, you see. When he had a case on we used to go in droves to hear him plead.

"I remember to this day a story that he once told in court in a case where he was showing how, with a good motive, one might still do a lot of harm.

"He said that two aged Scotch ministers sat talking one day over their churchwarden pipes.

"'Last Sawbath,' said the younger of the two old men, 'only three folk cam' to my kirk, and since it was an awfu' cauld, snawy, stormy mornin', I juist took them over to the manse, read a chapter, gied them a prayer and then, to ward off the rheumatics, a guid stiff glass of the best whisky.'

"The other minister smiled.

"'Aweel,' he said, 'ye will hae a fine congregation, my brither, the next stormy day.'"

Reassured.

"G-g-good evening," said the young man, who had come to speak to the girl's father.

"Good evening," replied the old gentleman. "You look a little nervous. How do you feel?"

"Flattered," replied the young man. "I was afraid I looked scared to death."—Catholic Standard and Times.

As an Example.

Culprit (surprised and indignant)—Why, your honor, I was one of the invited guests aboard that ship. I merely took those little silver articles as souvenirs.

The Court—Yes. That is why I am giving you the full limit of the law. Call the next case.—Houston Post.

An Uncomfortable Seat.

"They say," remarked Coakley, "that Luckley is now upon the very pinnacle of success and prosperity, and yet he's not happy."

"Well," replied Joakley, "that's not altogether surprising. Did you ever sit on a pinnacle of any sort?"—Philadelphia Press.

Spraying For Potato Blight.

Many New Jersey farmers spray potatoes for blight, but very few of the total number. Most of those who spray have found it profitable. The number of those who spray is increasing. We recommend that spraying be begun early in July and repeated at intervals of from seven to fourteen days. This varies with the weather conditions and the rapid growth of the vines. We use bordeaux, formula 6-6-50—that is, six pounds blue stone, six pounds lime and fifty gallons water. To this we add one pound paris green when the bugs are present.—G. F. Warren, Horticulturist, New Jersey Experiment Station.

MONTHLY MISERY

is one of woman's worst afflictions. It always leaves you weaker, and is sure to shorten your life and make your beauty fade. To stop pain take Wine of Cardui and it will help to relieve your misery, regulate your functions, make you well, beautiful and strong. It is a reliable remedy for dragging down pains, backache, headache, nervousness, irritability, sleeplessness, dizziness, fainting spells, and similar troubles. A safe and efficient medicine for all women's pains and sickness.

Mrs. J. L. Broadhead of Clanton, Ala. writes: "I have used Cardui for my disease, which was one peculiar to women, and it has completely cured me."

AT ALL DRUG STORES, IN $1.00 BOTTLES

WRITE US A LETTER describing fully all your symptoms and we will send you Free Advice in plain sealed envelope. Ladies' Advisory Dept., The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn. J10

WINE OF CARDUI

I Have Withdrawn My List of Farms

From this advertisement temporarily in order that I may revise it and I will in a short time announce

Some Great Bargains

In Farms and Town Property.

In the meantime I am prepared to show prospective purchasers some very de sirble faims.

Correspondence Solicited.

B. D. LAKE,

The Real Estate and Insurance Man.

Do not suffer with severe Headaches when

HERBINE

TRADE MARK

Will Cure You.

The liver is the main-spring for the whole body. To expect good health, one must keep the liver in good order. To do so, a regulator is needed. Herbine will put your liver in the condition it should be and you will not suffer from headaches.

A POSITIVE CURE
FOR CONSTIPATION, CHILLS AND FEVER, BILIOUSNESS, MALARIA AND ALL LIVER COMPLAINTS.

Has Done A World Of Good.

Mrs. C. D. Philley, Marble Falls, Texas, writes: "I have used Herbine and find it the best liver corrective I have ever tried. It done my family as well as myself a world of good, and I recommend it to all my friends. I never suffer from headaches anymore."

50c WILL BUY IT.

Ballard Snow Liniment Co.
500-502 N. Second St., ST. LOUIS, MO.

Sold and Recommended by Red Cross Drug Store

The Safest and Quickest Way to Transfer Money
IS BY
Long Distance Telephone
For Rates apply to Local Manager.
Cumberland Telephone & Telegraph Company.
INCORPORATED.

Louisville is Booming!

DO YOU KNOW THESE FACTS ABOUT LOUISVILLE? 350,000 people within a radius of only 6 miles! It leads the WORLD in the manufacturing of jeans, farm wagons, sewer pipe, wooden boxes, and in producing and handling whisky, sole leather, cement, tobacco, ax handles and plumbers' supplies. Louisville is the home of the largest organ factory in the world, the largest soap factory in the South and one of the largest plow factories in the world, and has 8 electric interurban lines. Louisville is a city of BEAUTIFUL HOMES! Its city property valuation is $200,000,000. It has the grandest park system in the United States, and many magnificent public buildings and churches, and is the home of the WORLD'S LEADING COMMERCIAL SCHOOL. Enroll at this school, do THOROUGH work, and you'll never be in want of a good position in a booming, enterprising city like Louisville. NOW is the time to investigate. Catalogue free.

THE WORLD'S LEADING COMMERCIAL SCHOOL FOUNDED IN 1864

BRYANT & STRATTON BUSINESS COLLEGE, LOUISVILLE, KY.